McElroy Raps Burke's Opposition To Pentagon Reorganization Plan

QUANTICO, Va. (AP) — Secretary of Defense McElroy said Saturday Adm. Arleigh Burke, the chief of naval operations, made a regrettable mistake in opposing some parts of President Eisenhower's Pentagon reorganization plan.

McElroy coupled this public reprimand with praise for Burke, but did not fully foreclose a possibility that the admiral might be removed from his post as the Navy's top uniformed officer.

The defense secretary said he is not recommending any change in Burke's status to President Eisenhower, who would make the final decision on any such shift.

But McElroy added to reporters that neither Burke nor anyone else in the defense command "could fail to be conscious of the degree of interest of the President as expressed in his quite emphatic language" in favor of his reorganization plan.

Eisenhower has described as "legalized insubordination" one provision of a revised reorganization bill passed by the House. Burke did not join in urging the Senate to change it.

On Thursday, Burke testified before the Senate Armed Services Committee that he would feel it his duty to protest "until I was heard" if he disagreed with decisions of the Joint Chiefs or the secretary of defense.

The administration wants to limit protests by the service chiefs to Congress.

The administration also wants to give the secretary of defense power to reassign functions of the various services and to abolish a provision in present law that says the services will be administered separately.

Burke told the senators the nation must continue with three separate military departments. He said the reorganization bill should "leave the business of strategic planning and operation guidance to the Joint Chiefs of Staff—the business of fighting to the combatant commanders—and the business of administration and support to the military departments."

A spokesman for Burke said the admiral would have no comment at this time because he did not know precisely what McElroy said at his news conference. The spokesman said Burke referred any questions about his views to the transcript of his testimony before the Senate committee.

U.N. Unit Critical Of Nagy's Execution

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. five-nation special committee on Hungary said Saturday the execution of Imre Nagy and three of his aides demonstrated a reign of terror is continuing in Hungary.

The committee expressed grave concern "lest the end of this repression and killing may not yet be in sight."

Lebanese To Ask Help Only If U.N. Fails To End Fight

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Premier Sami Solh said Saturday the Lebanese government will not ask U. S.-British help unless a U. N. mission fails to stop the fighting in revolt-shaken Lebanon.

But Solh was reported to have told U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld that the government of President Camille Chamoun does not consider sufficient a U. N. team that limits its work to observing and reporting back to the U. N. Security Council.

The government is known to want a guard force to seal off its borders and prevent the United Arab Republic of Syria and Egypt from continuing its alleged help to Chamoun's foes.

Hammarskjöld left here Saturday after more than 48 hours of conferences, heading to Amman and Jerusalem for talks on the Israeli-Jordan Mt. Scopus dispute, and then to Cairo to discuss aspects of the Lebanese situation. He is to return to Beirut before going back to the U. N. in New York.

It was indicated there will be a new Lebanese appeal to the Security Council after Hammarskjöld reports back.

At the U. N. in New York, Lebanese Delegate Karim Azkoul said Lebanon probably will ask for a new Security Council meeting soon to present evidence that the U. N. observation team has not halted infiltrators or eased the situation. He said Lebanon will demand that the U. N. seal the country's borders.

The committee appealed to interested governments for any information they might have on the executions.

The reign of terror in Hungary began when Soviet forces moved into the country to suppress the 1956 uprising, a committee statement said.

The committee statement said ex-Premier Nagy, his defense minister Gen. Pal Maleter and two journalists who figured in the uprising "were secretly sent to death in defiance of the judgment and opinion of the United Nations" and in violation of solemn pledges they would not be harmed.

The committee noted Hungary's official announcement on the executions Monday left unanswered the questions of where the prisoners were between arrest and execution, in what country they were tried, where they were executed and whether this happened under laws enacted since the uprising.

The committee, set up by the general assembly in January 1957, consists of Australia, Ceylon, Denmark, Tunisia and Uruguay.

21-GUN SALUTE FOR TRUMAN

NICE, France (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman received a 21-gun salute as he boarded the American cruiser Salem Saturday for a luncheon. He got a similar salute when he left.

Truman has been vacationing in southern France. He will return to the United States aboard the liner Constitution, which sails from Cannes July 1.

Accompanying the former President aboard the Salem, anchored off Villefranche, were Mrs. Truman and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rosenman.

1958 ILLINI GIRLS STATE GOVERNOR

—Miss Carolyn Jean Kaufman, at right, Nationalist standard bearer and official leader of her party, receives the Girls State gavel from 1957 retiring governor Miss Susan Easterday, left, of Metropolis. Miss Kaufman was inaugurated at ceremonies conducted in Annie Merner Chapel on the MacMurray College campus Saturday night. Assistant secretary of state, Robert G. Cronson, conducted inaugural ceremonies for all state and county candidates.

Miss Kaufman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Kaufman, 2534 Hurd, Evanston. She is a sixteen-year-old senior at Evanston Township High School and has her sights set on a career of nursing and missionary work. She teaches swimming, is captain of her swimming team and plays the piano and organ. She holds the position of vicemoderator and faith chairman in the Northminster Presbyterian Church youth group.

Miss Kaufman will hold the office of governor for the 1958-59 Girls State Year. Girls State is sponsored annually by the American Legion Auxiliary.

When asked to make a statement concerning Girls State Miss Kaufman said "This is the greatest thing that ever happened to me. I never knew there were as many wonderful girls as I've met here."

Two Priests Reach Freedom After Five Years In Red Prisons

HONG KONG (AP)—They came down the gangway of the ship from Shanghai Saturday.

The older one, the Rev. Joseph P. McCormack, 65, seemed alert and called out "Hello." The younger one, the Rev. Cyril P. Wagner, 51, of Pittsburgh, needed help. He trembled; he looked haggard and white. But he smiled — wanly.

After five years in Red Chinese prisons, the two U. S. Roman Catholic priests were going home. For the first time since their release last Saturday they were setting foot on friendly soil. It moved them almost to tears.

Then they came to a news conference. Father Wagner wore a white shirt and dark trousers. Father McCormack, born in Ireland but assigned to the Maryknoll Seminary in Ossining, N. Y., wore a black suit.

Father Wagner was charged by the Communists with "sabotaging China's financial advance."

"I do not deny the charges," he said, his face ashen "I feel my sentence was a little long. I believe 2½ years would have been a more fair sentence. I did deal in black market currency."

White House Stands By Adams Despite Demands For Ouster

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fresh Republican demands arose Saturday night for the ouster of President Eisenhower's chief aide because of what National Democratic Chairman Paul Butler blasted as "the Sherman Adams mess."

The White House stood firm behind Adams, denying reports that Eisenhower is looking around for a successor to his No. 1 assistant.

Five Army Men Killed In Copter Crash In Kansas

FT. RILEY, Kan. (AP)—Three warrant officers and two enlisted men were killed early Saturday in the crash of an Army helicopter on a ranch near Manhattan, Kan., during a thunderstorm.

Three bodies were found in the burned wreckage and two were thrown clear. County Coroner Philip Hostetter reported.

Sea Lion In Great Lakes Is Problem For Zoo Keeper

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—How do you recapture a slippery California sea lion who has tasted freedom in the Great Lakes?

That problem was being mullied over Saturday by Phil Skeldon, director of the Toledo Zoo.

The 100-pound sea lion led a police harbor patrol and Skeldon a merry chase up the Maumee River Friday. The pursuers finally gave up, deciding they had no way to capture the animal without injuring it.

Skeldon Saturday was waiting for another sighting report from the harbor patrol before launching another sea lion chase.

"We might use a capture gun," he mused to a reporter.

What is a capture gun? "That's an air gun—well, it's powered by gas, actually—which fires an aluminum syringe. You give him a shot of tranquilizer."

NAACP Files Notice Of Appeal, Threatens To Go To Higher Court

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—"In the public interest, including the interest of both Negro and white students," U. S. Dist. Judge Harry J. Lemley of Hope Saturday granted Central High School a breathing spell from racial integration.

The veteran Arkansas jurist granted a school board request for a 2½-year suspension of its gradual plan for public school desegregation.

Under Lemley's ruling, the seven Negro students still enrolled at Central at the end of the past school year would be barred from the 2,000-pupil high school this September.

Files Appeal

Wiley Branton of Pine Bluff, attorney for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, filed notice of appeal here and asked in a motion that Lemley grant a stay of execution of his order until the appeal is heard in higher court.

Branton said that if Lemley refuses to stay the order, the motion could be taken all the way to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Grant Hearing

Lemley granted a hearing on the stay of motion for Monday.

The appeal would be heard in the 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis. A notice of appeal is a legal formality filed to let the court know that an appeal to a higher court will be made.

None of the seven Negroes enrolled at Central High could be reached for comment on Lemley's ruling and Branton said they would make no statements.

The appeal would be heard in the U. S. Eighth Circuit Court of appeals in St. Louis.

Faubus Comments

Gov. Orval Faubus, whose national guardmen last September turned away Negroes seeking to enroll in Central, commented:

"The Negro citizens of the community would do well to accept today's ruling, which will do much to re-establish the normal and friendly relations which prevailed here before. This is not a final settlement of this problem, but it can prove a peaceful interlude."

Indonesia Reports Fall Of Rebel Capital

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—The fall of the rebel capital of Menado in North Celebes was reported Saturday by the Indonesian radio.

Official sources in Jakarta did not confirm the report immediately.

The broadcast heard in Jakarta said rebel troops and the civilian population of the city turned against the rebellion leaders and aided the invaders as government units moved into the city.

The broadcast attributed the report to a spokesman of the inter-regional military command of East Indonesia.

Makassar, from which the broadcast was made, is on a southern tip of Celebes, hundreds of miles away. Menado, a tropical city of 60,000, is at the extreme end of the Peninsula of north Celebes.

Government military spokesmen have been predicting that the collapse of Menado would write the end to more than four months of rebellion and civil war that have split Indonesia.

Rebel leaders, however, have declared they would continue to wage guerrilla war from the jungles of Celebes and Sumatra.

The rebel chiefs had demanded that President Sukarno give up his concept of "guided democracy," form a new government free of all Communist influence, and give the outer islands more self-government and a better economic situation.

File $991,000 Damage Suit In School Bus Fire

GENEVA, Ill. (AP)—The parents of four children who were burned in a school bus fire have filed a $991,000 damage suit, the largest of its kind in Kane County history, against Kaneland Community Unit School District 302.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Molitor, along with 14 others attending Sugar Grove Community Grade School, were burned by gasoline when the bus hit a hole, veered from the road and its gas tank exploded March 10.

Norma Molitor, 12, seeks $531,600 damages, the highest ever asked by one person in Kane County. The suit, asking a jury trial, said she suffered second and third degree burns over 25 per cent of her body and had to undergo 10 operations.

The suit was filed Friday. Damages sought by the other three Molitor children are: Pamela, 8, $328,000; Ronald, 10, $76,000; Thomas, 13, $56,000.

The Molitors alleged that the driver, James Meredith, who is not being sued, was driving faster than reasonable and proper when the accident occurred on State Highway 47, two miles north of the school.

Illinois Farmers Favor Marketing Quotas On Wheat

WASHINGTON (AP)—Illinois farmers have voted 2 to 1 in favor of federal marketing quotas on the 1959 wheat crop.

Their decision to keep a government clamp on wheat production for a sixth straight year coincided with the results of a referendum held Friday in 38 states. Vote totals showed 165,882 farmers favored controls. Only 32,342 voted against the curbs. This was a majority of 83.7 per cent, far more than the necessary two-thirds.

The outcome was no surprise to farm officials and leaders, even though the program has been under attack on the ground it has failed to prevent the accumulation of what may turn out this year to be the largest wheat surplus on record.

The alternative — freedom to produce at much lower prices — was generally looked upon as even less inviting.

The program imposes marketing quotas on individual farms, and assesses penalties on excess sales. It is designed to limit sales to the production on 55 million acres, which is about 30 per cent less than the postwar peak.

But increasing yields per acre, reflecting better crop practices, have large offset reductions in plantings. Furthermore, present law does not permit any further reduction in total acreage allotted under the program.

Influencing the referendum's outcome was the fact that the 1959 crop would be supported at an average of about $1.81 a bushel if quotas were approved and at about $1.29 if they were rejected.

11-Year-Old Falls Into Illinois River

HAVANA, Ill. (AP)—Kenneth Noble, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Noble, 614 So. State, toppled into the Illinois River from the Illinois state fish hatchery dock near his Havana home Saturday.

Searchers were unable to find the boy's body in the swift-flowing river now three feet above flood stage.

Weather Report

Saturday's temperatures as recorded at the WLDL transmitter were a high of 73 at 3 p.m.; 69 at 6 a.m.; 69 at 10 a.m.; 72 at 1 p.m.; and 72 at 6 p.m. The low Friday night was 57.

Sunset Sunday—6:35 p.m.
Sunrise Monday—6:29 a.m.

Forecast for this area: Partly cloudy Sunday with scattered showers or thunderstorms by late afternoon or evening. Showers ending Sunday night and becoming partly cloudy Monday. Little temperature change in mid Sunday and Monday in mid 70s. Low Sunday night 55-60.

River Stages

LaSalle 20.6 fall 0.5
Peoria 19.2 fall 0.2
Havana 17.0 0.0
Beardstown 17.6 rise 0.2
Grafton 15.5 rise 0.2
St. Louis 12.5 fall 2.2

The Illinois River will continue to fall at and above Peoria; at LaSalle it will fall below its flood stage of 20 feet early Sunday; at Peoria it will fall below its flood stage of 18 feet Monday; at Havana the river will change little for the next 24 hours then fall slowly; the crest at Beardstown will be 17.7 feet Monday (flood stage there is 14 feet).

Town Fights Recession With 5 Per Cent Plan

RIDGEFIELD, N.J. (AP)—The little community, with only 11,000 people and some small manufacturing plants, thinks it has found an antidote for the recession.

It's a "five-per-cent" plan — a promise to spend that much more.

Results range from five per cent discounts at retail stores to a pledge of expansion at a perfume plant totaling one million dollars.

A picnic rally was held Saturday to hear pledges. They totaled more than 2½ million dollars. Samuel Rubin, president of the perfume plant, had the biggest pledge.

A. Theodore Holmes, a bank vice president, pledged an extension of the bank costing $125,000. A lumber warehouse concern announced a $350,000 expansion plan. Other pledges poured in, several for as little as $500.

The enthusiasm spread, and Ike Englehardt, of nearby Fairview, pledged his firm would spend $25,000 extending facilities.

"I think this is the time for every American to show by direct action that he has no fear of the future," he said.

Thousands attended the day-long celebration, which included square dancing and free refreshments.

Golden Wedding Anniversary For Mr. & Mrs. Norris

GREENFIELD — Mr. and Mrs. J. Marshall Norris will pass their 50th wedding anniversary quietly at the home, 810 College St., on June 24. They were married in the Greenfield Presbyterian church by Rev. Furas Witherspoon. Mrs. Norris is the former Martha Mabel Taylor, daughter of the late Abigail and Velasco Taylor, of Washington, Ind. Mr. Norris is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Norris. They have lived at their present address for the past 38 years.

Miss Esther Rives, of Springfield, spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Pearl Rives. Members of the Girl Scout troop enjoyed an overnight outing Monday at Woodbine Country club. Twelve girls were present along with Mrs. Howard Houlette, leader. Mrs. Charles Barton and Miss Judy Harper, assistant leaders, Mrs. Barton spent part of the time at the country grounds and brought the group back to town Tuesday Morning. The group slept in tents and prepared their supper and breakfast.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Dugger, Carolyn and Denny left Monday for their home in Cheyenne, Wyo., after a 10-days visit with Mrs. Dugger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Nash, and other relatives. While here a family dinner was held which the entire family of children and grandchildren attended for the first time in years.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill H. Shields and daughter, Rhonda Sue, of Wood River, spent Monday in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Russell Shields.

Cass County Share-The-Fun Festival June 25

VIRGINIA—The Cass County Share-the-Fun Festival will be held in the Virginia high school gymnasium, Wednesday, June 25, at 7:30 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend this 4-H talent event.

At this time, three judges made up of extension personnel from surrounding counties, will select three acts and a master of ceremonies as county winners. These county winners are then eligible to participate in the District contest to be held in Pittsfield, July 10. Acts may consist of master-of-ceremonies, instrumental, vocal, stunt or novelty and dance groups. These acts are further classified into those having three or fewer participants.

The main objectives of the Share-the-Fun activity is to discover and further develop 4-H talent, to develop personal and community resources that make for leisure time and to make 4-H programs more attractive and self satisfying. This is the time that 4-H members should be putting the final touches to their acts in preparation for the county event. We hope to see every club represented on the 25th of June.

PYTHIAN PICNIC WEDNESDAY EVENING

Members of the Pythian Sisters and their families will have a picnic at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday evening, June 25 at Nichols park.

In a snowstorm which swept Northwestern Ontario, Canada, recently, an American plane was damaged when it was forced down and hit a highway sign. It was towed to a nearby service station, repaired, then took off again from the highway.

"FORT MASSACRE" IS MIGHTY!

THREE SURVIVORS: John Russell, Susan Cabot and Joel McCrea finally fight off the badly mauled Indian attackers in the cliff redoubt Russell aptly names "Fort Massacre." Russell accuses McCrea of having started the fight in seeking vengeance against the Indians, without regard for the lives of his battle-weary troops. McCrea turns the accusation aside and orders the old Plute to ride to Fort Crane for help. Co-featured is "ISLAND WOMEN" in the big program starting Sunday, June 29th at the TIMES THEATRE.

It's June - the special month for Brides

Mrs. R. Marlin Jarvis

Mrs. Robert Edmund Sutton

Ceremony At Our Saviour's Church Unites Constance L. Lahey And Marlin Jarvis

Friends and relatives filled the Church of Our Saviour the last Thursday in May for the wedding of Miss Constance Louise (Connie) Lahey and Robert Marlin Jarvis. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russel W. Lahey, 509 Sandusky street, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Jarvis of Sparta, Tennessee. The Reverend John Kennedy officiated at the Nuptial Mass in which the double ring service was used. White glads with ferns and palms decorated the altar of the church.

Mrs. Alta Eisch presided at the organ and accompanied Mrs. George Ischer who sang "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" as the bride placed roses at the statue of the Blessed Virgin. Mrs. Eisch used "Trumpet Tune," Purcell, for the processional and "Joyeuse Postlude," Lee as the recessional. Other organ selections during the prelude included "Ave Maria," Salvatore; "Agnus Dei," Bizet and "Priore a Notre Dame," Boellmann.

The bride's three attendants were, her maid of honor, Miss Mary Coop, and two bridesmaids, Miss Mary Ryan and her sister, Miss Sharon Lahey. The attendants wore floor length gowns of firm finish nylon dotted sheer in pastels. The smoothly fitted bodices featured deep portrait necklines with bands of solid color emphasizing the long torso effect and ending in bows at the back. The bouffant skirts billowed out over hoops. Small nylon braid crowns with face framing veils outlined with seed pearls, completed their costumes.

Miss Coop was in blue and carried blue carnations. Miss Ryan carried with orchid carnations, and Miss Lahey in yellow with yellow carnations.

The flower girls were the small sister of the bride, Marilyn Jean Lahey, and a cousin, Mary Helen Quinlan, who wore conventional length frocks of silk organza with multiple insets of Val lace over very full can-can lace skirts. Each carried a pink basket of rose petals.

Donald Dean Towers of Chicago was best man and Don Wagner and John Quinlan of Jacksonville were groomsmen. Ushers were Marvin Sailors, Robert Lee Lash and Gene TerHart.

Gowned in Chantilly Lace

When in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of hand clipped Chantilly bow-knot lace over crisp taffeta. Sparkling sequins etched the complimentary sequina neckline of the deftly shaped bodice with its long tapering sleeves and tiny lace covered buttons.

Lace continued down the front and back of the fabulously full skirt in a princess panel enhanced on either side with tiers of crystal pleated ruffles cascading into a Chapel sweep train. A tiana of sequins held her veil of illusion and her only jewels were earrings. The bride carried a cascade of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Lahey, mother of the bride, wore embroidered pink silk organza over taffeta, with a mauve flowered hat. Her accessories were white and her corsage an orchid. Mrs. Jarvis, mother of the groom, wore pastel blue lace with a matching floral hat and harmonizing accessories. Her corsage, too, was an orchid.

The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. John Tobin, wore a navy print with matching accessories and a white orchid.

Wedding Breakfast

Mrs. Tobin, grandmother of the bride, entertained members of the wedding party and immediate family members at breakfast at her home, 140 Chestnut street, which was attractively decorated with arrangements of spring garden flowers. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. William German, Mrs. Clarence German, Miss Flora Koch, Mrs. Lawrence Quinlan, Mrs. Donald Tobin and Mrs. Don Wagner.

Afternoon Reception

An afternoon reception at two o'clock was held at the home of the bride's parents on Sandusky street. The Lahey home was attractively decorated with white peonies, pink roses and a large white wedding bell. The serving table was lace covered appointed in silver and crystal. The three independent tiered cake was lavishly frosted in white with the top layer holding a small bride and groom nestled in ribbon, tulle and lily-of-the-valley. Triple candelabra held white tapers flanking the wedding cake. Guests were served punch with cake, nutmeats and wedding bell mints. Pastel shades used in the gown worn by members of the wedding party were used in the reception decor.

The newlyweds left for a honeymoon at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. For her going away costume the bride wore a pastel blue lace made on princess lines with a matching jacket and white accessories. A strand of pearls, the gift of her bridegroom, and the orchid from her wedding bouquet completed the ensemble.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis are now making their home at 568 LaPorte, North Lake, Illinois.

The bride graduated in 1954 from Routt high school and attended Hardin Brown's Business College in Jacksonville and later Springfield Junior College. Until the time of her marriage she was employed at the Cinderella Shop in this city. The groom graduated from Sparta High School and attended LeTourneau Technical Institute at Dallas, Texas. He is employed at Automatic Electric in Chicago as an engineer.

Special guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Willie Jarvis, Sparta, Tennessee, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hill of Sparta, Tenn., and relatives and friends from the Jacksonville area.

Many Pre-Nuptial Parties

The former Miss Lahey was complimented with a series of pre-nuptial parties.

Mrs. Helen Quinlan, Mrs. Doris Tobin and Miss Louise Tobin entertained with a linen shower at the Quinlan home. The hostesses are aunts of the bride.

Mrs. Otto Lutkehus, Mrs. Margaret Carrigan and Mrs. Jean Harbin entertained in the Lutkehus home at Arenville. The former two are aunts and the latter is a cousin of the bride.

A brunch and shower at the home of Miss Mary Coop with hostesses, also honored the bride. Mrs. Florence Patterson, Mrs. Jean Adams and Mrs. Lucille Goody also entertained with a miscellaneous shower at the Patterson home.

Italian is perhaps the easiest language to sing.

Sutton And Lonergan Nuptial Mass At Church Of Our Saviour June 14th

In a Nuptial Mass performed at eight-thirty Saturday morning, June fourteen, at the Church of Our Saviour Miss Harriet Allen Lonergan, daughter of Mrs. Walter D. Lonergan, 1157 West Lafayette avenue, and Robert Edmund Sutton were united in marriage. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sipowski of Kenosha, Wisconsin.

Performing the double ring ceremony was the Reverend John Kennedy. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, W. D. Lonergan, Jr. White gladioli and ferns were used at the altar.

Before the service Mrs. Paul Langdon and Miss Celeste Flynn sang, "Mass of the Sacred Heart," Hama; "Ave Maria," Dubois and "Pae Ut Ardeat," Pergolesi with Mrs. Alta Eisch at the organ. The processional was "March Romaine," Gounod and the recessional, "Joyeuse Postlude," Mallard.

Miss Sarah Elizabeth Lonergan was her sister's only attendant. Alex Skurski, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Robert Kaufmann, Jr. and Dick Dietrich.

The styling of the bride's gown influenced during the reign of Marie Therese in 1750, revealed a high neckline, long fitted sleeves and snug bodice. The white Chantilly lace over satin gown featured a very full lace skirt over cascades of net ruffles. A close fitting lace cap, embroidered with seed pearls, held her veil and she carried a white orchid with stephanotis with a white prayer book.

The bride's attendant wore pale pink lace and taffeta in a ballerina length. The full skirt had a modified trapeze effect at the back. She wore a matching pink hat of horsehair and carried a bouquet of blue daisies.

The bride's mother wore blue French voile with white accessories and a corsage of white daisies. The groom's mother wore pearl embroidered beige linen with matching beige accessories. Her corsage was also white daisies.

Receive at Rutledge

A reception was held following the ceremony in Ann Rutledge lounge, MacMurray College campus. Pink and white were used in appointments and pink carnations with white daisies formed the center floralpiece at the serving table. Guests were served canapés, and punch or coffee and wedding cake. Assisting were Miss Celeste Flynn, Miss Sharon Kelly and Mrs. John Weishart. Mrs. Robert Kaufmann, Jr. cut and served cake and Mrs. Walter D. Lonergan, Jr. and Mrs. Alex Skurski, poured coffee.

When leaving for their honeymoon in northern Wisconsin the bride wore a navy silk shantung two piece costume with white accessories and the white orchid carried at her wedding.

Mrs. Sutton is a graduate of Routt high school and Illinois College, class of 1956, where she was a member of Gamma Delta Literary society. She is a teacher in the Winthrop Harbor, Illinois elementary school.

The groom received his bachelor and masters degrees from University of Wisconsin. He teaches science at Zion City High School.

Guests attended the wedding and reception from Kenosha, LaFarge and Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Greenfield, Illinois; Gary, Indiana; St. Louis, Mo. and Midland, Michigan.

TENT REVIVAL OPENS ON E. WALNUT STREET

A tent revival is in progress on the show grounds at East Walnut street and Clay avenue, with Evangelist E. E. Duncan as speaker. The public is invited to attend the services each night, through July 4.

GUESTS FROM CHICAGO

Richard Lonergan and Mrs. Axel Berg of Chicago were guests last week of their niece, Mrs. Alfred Massey and family. C. E. Lonergan took them to Springfield from where they returned home by train.

Victor Herbert was the first American composer to write an original score for a motion picture.

Mrs. Donald Leroy Mueller

Ceremony At Grace Methodist Church Unites Kay Kendall And Donald Mueller

In a double ring ceremony the afternoon of Sunday, June eighth, at Grace Methodist church in this city Miss Glenda Kay Kendall of Jacksonville and Donald Leroy Mueller of Chapin, were united in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kendall, 212 Caldwell street, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mueller of Chapin.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Frank Marston before the church altar decorated with white glads, pink Aristocrat roses and carnations.

Before the ceremony James Mueller, brother of the groom, lighted candles in the branched candelabra at the altar. During the prelude Miss Laura Smith, accompanied at the organ by Donald Quyn, sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Because" and as the couple knelt for blessing after exchanging vows the organist played "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride chose as her maid of honor a college roommate, Miss Carol McDevitt, and for her bridesmaid, Miss Phyllis Strawn. The flower girl was little Janet Ruh and the groom's small brother, Dale, served as ring bearer. Delbert Mueller attended his brother as best man and Eldred Ehlert, Bluffs, was groomsmen. Ushers were Oanfa B. Lowe of Greenview, a cousin of the bride, Ronald Albers of Naples, college roommate of the groom and Ronald Alida Walls, Jacksonville, and Fred Celeste Flynn, Miss Sharon Kelly and Mrs. John Weishart. Mrs. Robert Kaufmann, Jr. cut and served cake and Mrs. Walter D. Lonergan, Jr. and Mrs. Alex Skurski, poured coffee.

Gowned in Chantilly Lace

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white imported Chantilly lace over taffeta. The dress was styled with a V neckline finished in scallops and long sleeves that tapered smoothly into points over the hands. The snug fitting bodice formed a modified V at the waistline from which a bouffant skirt extended falling in three tiers to floor length. Her veil of sheer illusion was attached to a small jeweled cap of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white Bible with an arrangement of pink rosebuds streamered with satin ribbon.

The attendants wore identical gowns of Nile green organza over taffeta made with scoop cut necklines, tiny sleeves and snug bodices. The ballerina length skirts were very full and fell in soft pleats from the waist. Each wore a matching picture hat which with their accessories matched the color of their gowns. They carried carnations.

The flower girl wore a pure silk shell pink dress with lace insets. The ruffled bouffant skirt was trimmed with silk roses. Her bonnet was white straw trimmed in rosebuds and had a shoulder length veil.

The ring bearer was dressed like the men in the wedding party, white coat with dark trousers and maroon boutonniere.

Mrs. Kendall, mother of the bride, wore rose chiffon and lace. Her hat was white lace and her accessories in white. Mrs. Mueller, Cocos and chocolate both come from a tropical tree called the cacao. Cocoa beans, about the size of almonds, grow in hard-shelled pods. Chocolate contains more fat or "cocoa butter" than does the cocoa powder, although both are made from the beans.

mother of the groom, wore pastel blue with matching hat and white accessories. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

The bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Rollin Baker of Springfield, and the groom's grandmothers, Mrs. Phillip Hamilton of Chapin and Mrs. John Mueller of Bluffs, attended the ceremony and reception.

Reception at Hotel

A reception at the Dunlap hotel immediately followed the ceremony. The serving table was attractively decorated with pink and green used with white. Pink Aristocrat roses with white baby mums and pink tapers comprised the handsome centerpiece. The large triple tiered cake was decorated with pink roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

The green tinted punch corresponded with the green skirt bordering the lace covered table. A container of white glads and pink roses with carnations served as background for the serving setting.

Serving cake were Mrs. George Waters and Miss Martha Richardson. Miss Kay Woodward and Miss Lois Pontius were in charge of

Mrs. Kenneth Pond Eikelmann

Carol Crawford, Kenneth P. Eikelmann Wed At First United Presbyterian Church

White larkspur and daisies filled the altar vases at First United Presbyterian church decorated for the afternoon wedding Saturday, June fourteenth, when Carol Hart Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Crawford, Senior, became the bride of Kenneth Pond Eikelmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Eikelmann of St. Louis, Missouri.

The double ring service was read by Dr. C. P. McClelland before a large gathering of friends and relatives from this area, Evanston and Elgin, Illinois; St. Louis and Columbia, Missouri; San Mateo, California; Detroit, Michigan, and Regensburg, Germany.

Before the wedding party entered the church, Robert Wegholt played the following numbers at the organ, "Air in D," Bach; "O Perfect Love," Barnby; "Cantabile," Franck; and for the processional, "Aria in F Major," Handel and for the recessional the traditional "Wedding March."

Edward Boone of Elgin, Illinois, attended the groom as best man. David Stahl, seven-year-old brother of the groom, was junior groomsman. Ushers were John Porter and Mack Gasaway, the Third of St. Louis.

Cathleen Alice Crawford was her sister's only attendant. She wore a ballerina length dress of white silk on taffeta made with a snug bodice and short sleeves. The front rounded neckline was finished at the back in a V where a bow marked the joining of rose embroidered inset bands that extended from the front of the empire cut waist. Long streamers extended from the back bow. Cathleen carried a hand bouquet of pink split carnations. A brimmed white horsehair picture hat completed her costume.

Embroidered Organza Gown The lovely blonde bride wore a white length wedding gown of white embroidered organza over taffeta. The neckline was cut wide but not deep and she wore white, below the short sleeves of the dress, that came to points over the wrists. The skirt was very full and worn over graduated hoops. A crown of seed pearls with orange blossoms held the bride's shoulder length veil. She carried an arm bouquet of white stephanotis tied with satin ribbons.

Mrs. Crawford chose for her daughter's wedding embroidered Dior blue cotton with three-quarter sleeves and a matching color leather hat. Her flowers were gardenias. Mrs. Eikelmann wore navy blue sheer chiffon over taffeta with navy and white accessories. Her flowers also were gardenias.

Reception at Ann Rutledge A reception at Ann Rutledge Hall, MacMurray College campus followed the church ceremony. Blue with white was used in decor for the serving table where the white frosted bride's tiered cake was served. The wedding cake was decorated with blue tinted daisies at the base and a dainty nosegay rested on the top layer. Coffee or fruit punch was served with the cake, nutmeats and minis. Mrs. Lawrence W. Crawford, Jr., served coffee and Miss Virginia Brown punch. Miss Sharon Kelly cut and served cake.

Others assisting were Mrs. Harry D. Potts, Mrs. Harry H. Hammett, Mrs. Harry Crabtree, Mrs. Albert Pearce, Mrs. Harold Schmalz, Mrs. Walter Hamilton, Mrs. Leland Perbix, Mrs. L. Allen Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hemphill. Miss Ann Garry registered guests.

Raise Fund To Keep Dress Factories At White Hall, Roodhouse

WHITE HALL—A decision was reached at a meeting here during the past week, which will enable the dress factories to remain in White Hall and Roodhouse.

The new corporation will be known as the Twin City Mfg. Corporation, with Herman Freund as general manager and Emmett Evans, assistant manager.

The goal necessary for the forming of the new corporation is $35,000, to which $28,000 had been subscribed early in the week, and the solicitation committees have assured the representatives of the new company that the additional $7,000 will be forthcoming.

The new company plans to purchase the equipment and machinery of the American Apparel, Inc., which company has about ceased to operate, only a few employees remaining, and new operations will begin early in September.

The company has employed about 225 persons with an annual payroll of $500,000, and is a vital manufacturing project for the communities.

Pledges may be sent to F. M. Search and Stanley Thomas of this city and Ralph W. McConathy of Roodhouse on the remaining $7,000 to be raised.

Greer-Blake Nuptials At Missouri Church

GREENFIELD — Baskets of white gladioli and asters decorated the candlelight altar at the First Presbyterian church in Union, Mo., June 15, at 3 p.m. for the wedding of Miss Martha Joetta Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Blake of Union and Melvin Greer, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Greer of Greenfield.

Dr. C. C. Benedict, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony. While guests were being seated a prelude of wedding music was played by Mrs. C. C. Benedict. She also accompanied a men's quartette from Union, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Sandra Lee Blake, sister of the bride was maid of honor, and Miss Ruth Ann Greer, niece of the groom was junior bridesmaid. Other bridesmaids were Mrs. Albert Rhouton, St. Louis, and Miss Mariette Jones of Farmington, Mo.

Mr. Greer chose James Lehr as best man and Amul M. Greer, a brother, and Carroll Fandler, all of Greenfield and Joseph Davidson, Jr., of Carrollton, as groomsmen.

The ring bearer was Arvil Eugene Wickman of Doe Run, Mo. Gown Of Lace

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin, with long tapering sleeves and fitted bodice with Sabrina neckline. The bouffant skirt consisted of tiered ruffles of lace and tulle, and was worn over layers of crinoline and hoops. Her finger tip veil of illusion net was held in place by a lace cap edged with pearls and sequins. She carried an heirloom, point lace trim handkerchief. Her bouquet was a cascade of white carnations with hills of lilies of the valley and stephanotis.

The attendants were attired in identical dresses of light blue taffeta with harem skirts and fitted bodices and darker shade of blue cummerbund and fish-tail bows, which extended the full length of the skirts. They wore head bands of blue net with tiny white flowers and carried pink carnation cascades.

The flower girl, Miss Janet Smith of Farmington, wore a full length dress of yellow taffeta and net. Her head band was of yellow flowers and she carried yellow pompons in her basket.

The former Miss Blake graduated from high school at Farmington, Mo. and Washington University with a BS degree in Occupational Therapy.

Mr. Greer graduated from Greenfield high school and St. Louis College of Pharmacy and Allied Sciences. He also served two years with the Armed Forces in Germany.

A reception was held in the church social rooms following the ceremony. The table was centered with a three tier wedding cake and decorated with bouquets of white flower bells.

Mrs. Robert Borberg, Union and Miss Connie Wallace, Farmington, served the guests.

Following a short honeymoon in the Ozarks, the couple will reside in Carrollton, Ill., where Mr. Greer is employed as a pharmacist at Davidson's drug store.

For her traveling dress, Mrs. Greer wore an aqua sheath dress and she wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Greer will entertain June 29, at their home from 6:30 to 6:00 p.m., honoring their son and his bride.

Clews Lacking In Holdup Of Hazelrigg

Police yesterday continued search for clews to the identity of two masked men who robbed Fred M. Hazelrigg, 342 East Superior avenue, of between $1,000 and $1,200 after tying him firmly and locking him in a clothes closet at his home Friday night.

Hazelrigg is proprietor of the Dunlap hotel barber shop. Arriving home at 10:15 o'clock Friday night, the barber shop proprietor felt a revolver pressed against his back soon after he stepped out of his car, and two men ordered him to raise his hands.

They ordered him to lie on the ground, attempting to tie him with his belt. The bandits switched plans suddenly, and ordered him into the house, still holding the gun at his back.

Mrs. Hazelrigg and daughter are absent on a visit, and the bandits had no one to reckon with but the victim of the holdup.

Ripping up sheets and pillow cases, the bandits bound their victim securely, then shoved him into a bedroom clothes closet and shut the door.

The bandits took Hazelrigg's wallet containing a large amount of cash, consisting of three $100 bills, three $50 bills, and the remainder of $1,000 to $1,200 in bills of lesser denominations.

Among the new bills were three oversize dollar bills, the type in circulation a number of years ago before Uncle Sam reduced the size. They had been kept as souvenirs.

The holdup victim heard the bandits leave through the front door.

Hazelrigg struggled about 30 minutes before he could loosen the knots and free himself from the bonds. He telephoned the police department at 10:33 p.m., and officers rushed to the home to begin an investigation.

The victim described the two men as about 5 feet, 10 inches and rather heavy set. They wore silk stocking masks over their faces and heads.

Only one bandit is believed to have been armed. Both were wearing gloves.
